

Everest Foundation

Is Organizing Adventure & Leadership Development Program For Young Children.

About the Organizer, Padmashri Mrs. Santosh Yadav:

With the blessing of Almighty it has become possible for her to achieve the unique distinction of being "the first & only woman in the world to scale Mt. Everest, the highest peak in the world, twice". She has also successfully led the Mt. Everest Expedition via Kangshung Face in 1999 and East Ridge of Mt. Everest in 2001. And she has led and scaled lots of different mountains in different continents of the world. Government of India awarded her with 'Padmashree' in 2000 'National Adventure Award / Arjuna Award' in 1994, 'Rajiv Gandhi Sports Award' by the Government of Delhi in 2004 and many other national & international awards & recognitions. She has been visiting & delivering lectures on 'Leadership', 'Motivation' and 'Risk Management' in Government Institutions, Educational Institutions, Universities, Colleges, Schools, MNC's and other Companies & distinguished gatherings in India & abroad with a view to motivating youth and promoting adventure sports in national interest, free of cost. After visiting so many schools & colleges in our country, she felt that particularly young girls and boys need to go for adventure & trekking course and leadership development program so they can shape up their future in better way in the challenging work environment.

With your active support and co-operation, Everest Foundation, a non profit making organisation, is looking forward to organize one week "Leadership Development Program" through the specially crafted & planned Adventure & Leadership Course for young girls & boys. This program will guide them to develop patience, determination, willpower, team spirit, mental & physical fitness and strength, in building their leadership quality, which is needed for them in today's competitive life. It is endurance & personality development program.
